(Pompton Plains, NJ, September 3, 2020) After years of chrome and stainless steel finishes dominating the industry, shades of brass and bronze are warming up interiors everywhere. Architectural hardware manufacturer Ashley Norton offers a distinctive lineup of golden-toned finishes that harmonize with virtually any style of décor. From the warm luster of Satin Brass to the aged look of Antique Florence, the vast array of choices offers designers and architects the flexibility to carry any unique design vision throughout the whole home or project.

"Gold tones paired with modern, clean lines add an air of sophistication," says Ashish Karnani, Vice President of Ashley Norton, who explains, "These shades look amazing against both light and dark cabinetry finishes while complementing a wide range of paint colors."

Ashley Norton's latest architectural hardware pieces offer new ways to enjoy the beauty of yellow/gold metals. Satin Brass finishes, which are available for all door hardware, are a modern update to a classic finish. The Light Bronze Patina adds just the right amount of depth and dimension to the company's Solid Bronze line. The cube-like Bureau Knob in Antiqued Brass offers a rich vintage look. Antique Florence lends a rustic feel to the Mystic cabinet hardware collection while Distressed Brass brings a hint of "industrial chic" to the Classical Hardware collection. The variety of rich brass and bronze finishes, plus the vast array of available products and designs means a truly personalized look throughout the home.

About Ashley Norton
