Their new collection of decorative Sand Cast Bronze Hooks includes an array of unique designs, each available in a selection of rich patinas. Whether they're complementing Ashley Norton's door or cabinet hardware or making a unique statement alone, the hooks offer an ideal way to organize bathrobes, towels, hats, coats, keys, and more. From the simple J Hook and sleek Angular

Hook to the rugged Ox Hook and the whimsical Line and Dot Hook, the functional-yet-decorative hardware adds a sense of style to any space.

“The variety of designs in the collection means there is a hook suited for virtually any style of decor,” says Ashish Karnani, Vice President of Ashley Norton. “Whether you’re looking to maximize space or make a design statement, the collection lends an exquisite, yet functional design statement to your project.”

Sand Cast from the finest art-grade bronze, the collection includes options with back plates, such as the versatile Plated Hook (available with 2 or 4 hooks) and the ergonomic Plated Peg Hook. Among the streamlined yet sturdy and stylish designs are the Rivet Hook, J Hook, and Angular Hook. The Line and Dot Hook is a fun design that calls to mind the classic game “dots and boxes” while the Whale Hook looks like a whale’s tail as it dives back beneath the water. The Y-shaped Ox Hook resembles a steer’s horns and the Cleat Hook reflects the nautical rope cleat used for securing boats. With its unique oval design, the Camilla Hook features soft edges with a bold demeanor.

Available in a choice of five different finishes including White Bronze, Natural Bronze, White Medium, Dark Bronze, and Matt Black, the collection enables designers and homeowners alike to coordinate with Ashley Norton hardware or easily blend the hooks with existing door, window, or cabinet hardware and accessories.

Ashley Norton’s bronze hooks are available to order at leading decorative hardware dealers throughout the United States.
